

MIRABILE

DIGITAL ARCHIVES FOR MEDIEVAL CULTURE

www.mirabileweb.it

2,500 journal articles · 2,750 miscellany volumes essays

JOURNALS

Documenti e studi sulla tradizione filosofica medievale (I.1, 1990 –)

Filologia mediolatina (I, 1994 –)

Hagiographica (I, 1994 –)

Iconographica (I, 2002 –)

Itineraria (I, 2001 –)

Micrologus (I, 1993 –)

Stilistica e metrica italiana (I, 2001 –)

INTERACTIVE ARTICLES IN PDF: links to Authors, Works, Manuscripts and Subjects in Mirabile Databases

All journal back issues available online for a total of 2,500 articles

MISCELLANEA

The collection at the moment comprises 120 titles (divided in two areas: Medieval Latin Area and Italian and Romance Area) for a total of 2,750 essays (and 200 in free access).

All the miscellany volumes essays and the Journal articles are searchable at the full-text level starting from a bibliographical search.

The complete list of titles is available at www.mirabileweb.it.

Introductions, indexes (names, persons, places, manuscripts, topics) and abstracts are available for free.

INTERACTIVE ESSAYS IN PDF: links to Authors, Works, Manuscripts and Subjects in Mirabile Databases

LEXICONS

free access

For many years the Lexicographical Section has promoted research on Medieval Latin Lexicons through the publication of critical editions and commentaries. In this area of scholarship, SISMEL has come to recognize the importance and possibilities inherent in the creation of the Lessici mediolatini, LeMeL database, which allows consultation and research on a corpus of texts using the resources offered by new technologies. The lexicons now available in Mirabile, in PDF format, permitting basic word searching, represent the first step in a larger project.

DIGITAL LIBRARY

free access

The Mirabile Digital Library (MDL) is a new tool which enhance research at the text level on Latin Medieval Authors. It offers in open access the Latin Medieval Texts published by SISMEL · Edizioni del Galuzzo in a new form that allows users to accomplish tasks beyond the simple browsing: the text and related information contained in the edition are remodeled into a system of interconnected and browsable data. The texts are encoded in xml-tei standard. All metadata link directly to the repertories.

new section

OPEN ACCESS

free access

Open Access Publications in PDF format. A new section devoted to Journals, Miscellany Volumes, Monographies and Edition of Texts.

All metadata link directly to the repertories.